WANTED
B.I.
John Herbert Dillinger
PUBLIC ENEMY #1 Fugitive from Justice, John Herbert Dillinger, is being sought as an escapee from the Lake County Jail in Crown Point, Indiana, on March 3, 1934. After getting the drop on warden Lou Baker & a jailer, he made his getaway in the local sheriff's V-8 Ford.
Federal agents from Director J. Edgar Hoover's newly formed Federal Bureau of Investigation (F.B.I.) have joined the search since Dillinger violated the National Vehicle Theft Act.
Issued March 4, 1934
